

Surround Contrast

The diagram illustrates a neural processing model. It features a large outer circle with a grayscale gradient, labeled 'Surround Contrast'. Inside this is a smaller black ring, and at the center is a white circle labeled 'Center Contrast'. A double-headed arrow labeled 'Offset' connects the center and the ring. An arrow labeled 'OR' points from the top of the ring towards the top right corner of the image.

Center
Contrast

Offset

OR